

NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

THURSDAY MARCH 27, 1884.

Entered at the Postoffice at Cheboygan Mich., as Second Class Matter.

THE CITY.

Open water in sight.
Chas. Smith to Detroit Monday.
Judge Sutton returned Friday.
Sam Taylor to Detroit Saturday.
Now is the mud of our discontent.
W. S. Humphrey to Detroit Monday.
Fifteen baptized at the M. E. C. last Sunday.
The M. E. C. received 70 on probation and by letter.
Cass house will be connected by telephone April 1st.
The TRIBUNE steam job office for your election printing.
Full count, low prices, good work, at the TRIBUNE job office.
Election printing a specialty for a few days at the TRIBUNE job office.
On Saturday Charley Nuite sold Dodge's point for $2,100 to Fred J. Voss.
The Oyster Ocean has been dried up by the moral sentiment of Cheboygan, and sent outside.
Candidates cannot do better than to leave their orders for slips at the TRIBUNE steam job office.
On Sunday morning Mrs. W. Light-hall presented her husband with a queenly baby, the light of the home.
Candidates, who have any hope of being elected, should get some of those elegant stickers at TRIBUNE job office.
H. A. Wetmore's two stores and banking office at Concord burned last Thursday night. Loss $6,000, insurance $4,500.
Look out for Nelson & Bullen's new advertisement next week. They have something very important to tell our readers.
Rev. Leith is working the vineyard for all there is in it, and the M. E. C. rightfully wins her way onward and upward.
The prop. Atlantic has been provided with a new spar this spring. She will run to Toledo this season instead of Cleveland.
Capt. Kitchen didn't get Quail on toast. She was sold and Capt. is prospecting. He'll get there if there's any there to get.
The engine knew Judge Sutton was on board and flew the track and brought up at the eating house just as a matter of accommodation.
The residences of E. A. Smith, E. Smith, and Thompson Smith of Duncan City are being connected by telephone with Thompson Smith's store.
It is hard to find a better driving team than Tom Hall and Milliken's Nellie. They took four men from Cheboygan to St. Ignace in three hours.
The trustees of the M. E. C. have decided to remove vestibule below, and enlarge gallery above thereby increasing the seating capacity 150 sittings.
There is a band of wolves near Black lake. They have killed many deer and should have been poisoned. The bounty on wolves should be $25, it is only $8.
Two experienced woodsmen full of benzine stood before McDonald & Cueny's admiring a steam gauge, when on said: "I tell you pard, that's a bully compass." (hic.)
Parties from the outside townships can have their orders for slips and tickets filled on very short notice. No delay, no waiting, at the TRIBUNE job office. Prompt and accurate.
The lead pipe conveying four telephone wires under the river to the east side was broken last week by the swift current. The wires are still working as they are insulated with gutta percha.
His Excellency, the President, leaves Cheboygan for Washington, D. C. next week. While at the Capitol he will be special correspondent to the TRIBUNE, under the non de plume of George E. Frost.
Thompson Smith lost a valuable horse last week in one of his camps. The horse dropped down in the harness while going down hill with a load and before the harness could be taken off he was dead. A singular case.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. G. Wharton on Sunday morning a sister to the eldest child Lulu who was also born on Sunday. The better the day the better the child, but how will you celebrate the birthday without violating the Sunday law?
A writ of possession was issued in the case of Sanford Baker vs. W. & A. McArthur and by virtue of it the sheriff enclosed the land, on Monday, described in the judgement obtained by Baker vs. McArthur at the October term of 1883.
Al Smith massacred a beaver on Sunday and as a result he caught nothing last week. Last Sunday Al was good, went to church Sunday and on Monday trapped three beavers with very fine fur. Thus it pays to be good if you think so.
The Inverness school No. 3 gave an entertainment Saturday eve. The room was jammed and the programme of music, essays, dialogues &c. was instructive and good. The room was ornamented and every detail of the affair was a large success.
A graphic view of the beauties of crossing the Straits on the ice, is given by one of our citizens. It looks like one vast cemetery with cakes of ice sticking up for tomb stones and the road is adorned by evergreens to guide the traveler on the road. It is a beautiful sight on a sunshine day.
Dr. M. B. Champion and William Kalmbach go West about April 10th. for Washington and Montana and wherever the spirit moves, then as they go prospecting. They are as good as gone and we hope they will come back and conclude here is a good place to be happy. It don't pay to lose such men.

Many are boozy and many are jugged. Aspirants for office are polite just now.
Capt. Kitchen returned without a boat.
Grand Ball by Prof. Sweet on Easter Monday.
The G. A. R. have rented the Odd Fellows hall.
On the Crumley Hotel site there are 220,000 brick.

Saturday, Hiram Attison and wife for keeping a restaurant (?) on Third street, paid to Justice Fife fine and costs, amounting to $15, and have left town to escape a worse fate.
G. H. Hill, dentist, informs us that he has administered vitalized air to about 300 patients for the painless extraction of teeth, all expressed themselves well pleased. Vitalized air is perfectly safe.
Dr. J. Benson Hill, who has made diseases of women a special study for 15 years, has located in Cheboygan; so ladies do not despair. Office and residence on Water street, opposite Fountain House.
Mr. Charles Eddy, who recently left Cheboygan for Chicago, is now employed in the office of the Lakeside Publishing Co., in the latter city, it is one of the largest publishing and printing houses in the west. Charley is a good printer and a gentleman who will make friends wherever he goes.
Fred J. Voss of Big Rapids, has settled his fortunes on Dodge's point, where he has taken possession, is harvesting ice, repairing buildings and proposes to keep a first class summer resort, including bath house, beer garden, dance hall, boat house &c. He cultivates all the ground except the grove, is a tip top gentleman, and the TRIBUNE wishes him success.
Young Harry the Jew peddler having a pack of unseasonable goods struck the crank for a trade, exchanging for a watch, chain, and locket. The crank sold $1.50 from goods and left the pack with his landlady to insure board bill. They roomed together, Crank took watch and skipped. Harry was excited worse than a woman suffrage convention, but pursued, paid a man fifty cents to return crank, who kept his watch. Harry getting his pack and being left to the amount of $2.00 with a large experience that makes him as mad as the Old Harry.

Special Meeting.
